MM Docket No. 93-93

BPET-881012KE

BPET-900904KE

Directed to: The Honorable Arthur I. Steinberg
Administrative Law JudgeSTATEMENT FOR THE RECORD AND CORRECTED CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

Valley Public Television, Inc. (Valley), by its attorneys, hereby respectfully submits this Statement for the Record and includes a Corrected Certificate of Service to be associated with the Petition for Leave to Amend that was filed by Valley on May 13, 1993, in the above-referenced proceeding:

1. On May 13, 1993, Valley filed a Petition for Leave to Amend (Petition) its above-captioned application in this proceeding. That Petition and a copy of the Statement for the Record and Corrected Certificate of Service are being filed with the Commission.

Judge, counsel for the Mass Media Bureau, and the Chief of the Video Services Division.

2. Through an inadvertent clerical error that was not discovered until the Petition was already on file, the Certificate of Service that accompanied the Petition did not reflect service on counsel for CTSC or that service was accomplished by mail. The letter of transmittal that accompanied the Petition and the letter of transmittal that accompanied the Amendment both reflected that copies, with enclosures, had been provided to Mr. Schattenfield.

3. Attached hereto is a Declaration of Diane L. Roper

DECLARATION

I, Diane L. Roper, do hereby declare under penalty of perjury, that the following is true and correct:

1. I am a secretary at the law firm of Fletcher, Heald & Hildreth.

2. On May 13, 1993, I sent to Thomas Schattenfield, Esquire, by first class United States mail, postage prepaid, a copy of the Petition for Leave to Amend and a copy of the Amendment that Valley filed at the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) on May 13, 1993.

3. Upon reviewing the Petition for Leave to Amend that Valley filed on May 13, 1993, I have discovered an error in the Certificate of Service. Mr. Schattenfield's name and address were inadvertently deleted from the Certificate of Service. It should have reflected that the Petition was served on that date on Mr. Schattenfield, by first class mail.

4. I have prepared the attached corrected Certificate of Service, which is true and correct.

Diane L. Roper

Executed this 14th day of May, 1993.
